Amazing hardback books on our Identity as the physical descendants of the children of Israel

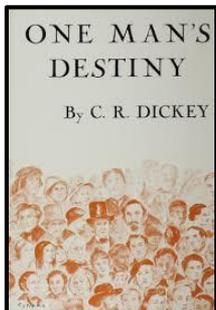

TO THE ISLES AFAR OFF by Robert C. Harvey #841

This is the remarkable account of how Christianity was brought from the Holy Land to the British Isles in the first century—and then from these Isles on to Rome. The book traces the role of Joseph of Arimathea in the founding of the British Church and explores the Church's deep Celtic roots. It was researched and written by an Anglican Bishop who has spent a lifetime walking the paths of history, legend, and faith. Intelligent, thought provoking, beautifully written, and impossible to forget, To the Isles Afar Off is a must read for anyone who is interested in British history or the history of the British Church.

ONE'S MAN'S DESTINY

By C. R. Dickey #807

Written in 1942, this book shows that the Bible is the story of the One man's family, Abraham. Beginning in Genesis 12, it requires 1178 chapters to record one man's destiny –Abraham. It is true that other peoples are mentioned in the Bible, but only as they deal with, oppose, or influence this one man's family. Suggested gift is $15

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Greetings friends,

For those of you who did not know, I spent a week in the hospital and came home yesterday. The Lord Jesus Christ be honored I feel like I'm back from the dead and glad to be back in my office. I do want to thank all of you who have been praying for me and ask that all of you continue to pray for me.

Today is Tuesday, 3 March 2014, and I am finally back from the hospital. I have been in the hospital since 24 February 2014 (last Tuesday, 7 days). Prior to my admittance, I was having severe pain in my abdomen of unknown origin. This went on for five days. I, of course, tried several things to help the pain, but to no avail.

In the hospital, they gave me a CAT scan, determining there was a problem in my left kidney. They thought it might be a tumor, but they were not sure. Further tests were needed including an ultrasound and x-rays. Of course, I also I felt like a pin cushion.

Where it stands right now is that I have to go back in 3 weeks for another CAT scan. The doctors are divided as to whether I have a tumor or some bacteria in the kidney. I am also being treated with a strong drug to fight a bacteria, because there is a fungus or bacteria that has attacked my lungs, but to tell you folks the truth, I do feel much better, and seem to be able to move free of pain and have much more energy than I previously had.

But I do want you all to know how appreciative I am for your prayers and thoughts of health and thankfulness. Please continue them! The good work of the Kingdom goes on, and we remain in the good faith through the Lord Jesus Christ. There is so much to be thankful for in Christ. AMEN!

I love you all, Pastor Dave Barley

PS: My good friends in Christ, it is now 26 March 2015. They have done the CAT scan and the results show that I do have an abscess, but that it is looking much better. They said my white blood count was not elevated and that I appear to be well on my way to recovery. The doctor's prescription was to keep doing whatever I'm doing (which is eating a lot of salads and taking Doug Evers glucose support, and drinking green tea, plus a few other unmentionable healthy things). He was amazed and most gratified to see my improvement. I will have to see an urologist plus do a few other things, but I appear to be getting much better, and I certainly want to thank all of you who have been praying for me. I believe in prayer and the healing power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

HEBREWS CHAPTER 12

by Pastor Barley

We are going to introduce Chapter 12 by first examining Galatians 5:5 because this verse connects Chapters 11 and 12 of Hebrews very well:

For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

There is a definite theme given to us in Chapter 12, and we find that it is confirmed by this verse from Galatians. The Spirit is a mystery to many of us because we are flesh, and we think carnally. We really do not understand the Spirit. Yet I believe that all of us realize that if it were not for the Spirit, we would all be most miserable. The Spirit I am referring to, of course, is the Holy Spirit. We wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. We cannot obtain righteousness in these carnal bodies, so faith sustains our hope of righteousness that will be ours upon our change at His appearing or upon our resurrection. The resurrection will bring our long-awaited righteousness – now imputed but not yet realized.

The Hope of Righteousness, or the Resurrection:

That is why the Bible refers to the hope of righteousness. If there is no resurrection, there is no reason to hope, and it is all for naught. When we speak of the resurrection, we are speaking of something phenomenal. How wonderful it is to get a vision of understanding about this, because we are talking about a transformation. It is the birthing of our Spiritual body. With that thought, let us begin in Hebrews 12.

¹Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

This great cloud of witnesses that encompass us is, I believe, the witnesses of our faith. I believe that this faith has not changed. The faith that is required of us as Christians is still the same faith that was required of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Faith made a big difference in their lives because it enabled them to remain faithful to the vision given them and to overcome many obstacles. The faithful will have a vision and will understand the promises of God.

In Hebrews 11:39, we read:

³⁹And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: ⁴⁰God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

Let me be clear about this, the resurrection of the dead has not yet occurred. Those who have gone before us did not obtain their reward ahead of us. Those who have gone before will receive their reward with us. This is confirmed in 1 Thessalonians 4:13, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

¹³But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

The Apostle Paul is referring to those who have died in the ages past. And if we read on in verse 15, we find the following:

¹⁵For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

The Greek word translated "prevent" actually means, "precede." Translated correctly, it reads:

¹⁵For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not precede them which are asleep.

This is telling us that "they without us shall not be spiritually processed." Many people consider this particular phrase a great mystery, but its truth is no secret unto the Sons of God. In fact, if you will notice in the following verse, there is a "shout," even a "trump of God." There will clearly be a certain "Divine Frequency" that will precipitate this great awakening.

¹⁶For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: ¹⁷Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Our Transformation:

Those who are dead will rise first and a Divine Frequency will give them life. The rapturists claim that we who are then alive will be gathered up in the air while the earth is burned to a crisp, and we will remain in the air/heaven strumming our harps swinging on the pearly gates. That is not how it reads, but people add their own ideas and words to this, do they not?

There will be a "catching up," but what exactly does that mean? I believe this is describing the transformation of our terrestrial bodies into celestial bodies. Our bodies are resurrected from the captivity of death. I also believe the clouds are symbolic of the Spirit. We are going to meet the Lord in the air, but what is the "air," is it not "spirit?" The Bible tells us that one day we will know Jesus after the spirit, (Romans 8:1-6; 2 Corinthians 5:16; and 1 John 3:2) and that we will know Him as He is.

It is exciting to know that there is to be a catching up, there is going to be a transformation of our bodies into spiritual beings that can exist in any dimension, and even take on various forms (after all, Jesus did). God has a purpose for all of His creation; however, these passages are speaking of the Sons of God. These verses clearly do not refer to all people, but have a covenant purpose expressed throughout the Bible, and it begins with Israel and eventually ends with Israel.

Sin and the Law:

In verse 1 of Hebrews 12, we read, "...let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us..." It is interesting to me that much of Christendom will talk about the sin which so easily besets us, but they do not address what sin is. Why is that? When I grew up, it was “don’t smoke, don’t chew, and don’t hang around with girls who do.” No one ever defined sin, and even today, though some are partially explaining “sin,” few do, and few ever declare the Israel truth in all this. It is clear to me that there is a concerted effort to keep the Adamic, Caucasian Israel people in the dark about God purposes for them. Our forefathers in America’s founding, for the most part, lifted up holiness and righteousness within our nation, so must we, and Israel will awaken, for the Word of righteousness is God’s Word unto Israel. There must be a house cleaning, which means there must be a turning (or repentance), from the pluralistic, idolatrous, multicultural belief system they now embrace.

Sin is transgression of God’s law. It is that simple. We are not free to do whatever we want to do. There are law limitations and law consequences, just read the Song of Moses (Deuteronomy 31:19-22). The only message that the pulpits consistently deliver each Sunday is an invitation to come down to the altar and get saved from sin.

However, they never define sin because most ministers teach grace without law, but maybe more importantly, they are in essence teaching a ritualism that is “soothing” to one’s appetite. It is called Judeo-Christianity and I must emphasize this is not true Christianity, but a counterfeit.

Without knowing and understanding God’s law, there is no way we can run the race required of the Sons of God. God’s laws, or rules, govern the high calling race and specifically the chosen race of Adamic Caucasian Israel. But where the law abounds, grace to finish the race doth much more abound. In fact, law and grace are there to groom us for Sonship by strengthening our faith.

Growing in Faith:

This next verse deserves our greatest attention in this regard.

Hebrews 12:2

2Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

If this verse means nothing to you, then I would suggest that you are probably spiritually dead. “Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith” has both personal and national application. On the personal level, Jesus is the author and finisher of our faith. We are to have the faith of Jesus Christ (Galatians 2:16, 3:22, and Romans 3:22). We then apply that faith nationally as it relates to our heritage and the promises of God. Looking at it personally and nationally, we should be anticipating that City whose Builder and Maker is God as we found in Chapter 11.

If Jesus Christ is the author and finisher of our faith, that means He is the source of our faith. It does not say “looking unto yourself as the author and finisher of our faith.” It says, “looking unto Jesus Christ who is the author and finisher of our faith.” Therefore, if you think (just as many of us do) that you are lacking the faith of Jesus Christ, look unto the author and finisher of that faith.

Meaning, Jesus Christ is where we are to place our faith. Something that is greatly lacking in so called Christians today is that lack of commitment to Jesus Christ and His Will, Plan, and Purposes. They play Christianity. They do not live it and the condition of our nation alone is proof of this.

Some will ask: “Can Jesus Christ make the difference?” Absolutely He can. We may try by ourselves to strengthen our faith, but we do not have the capability to accomplish this. We must look to Him. Meaning, we must place our faith in Him.

God Almighty created all things and that includes faith. He has faith for you. If you read through the prophets of old, they prayed that God would increase their faith. If you are lacking in faith, you need to pray for the faith of Jesus Christ.

Remember father Abraham separated himself and his family from the world and lived by faith. But also, let us not forget that Jesus Christ must have had total faith to submit to the cross and see beyond it. He is, not in a masonic sense, the All Seeing Eye, Amen.

Abraham is an example of a man of great faith. Yahweh told him to pack up his belongings, leave his home, and travel to a new country, without knowing where he was to go. Then, after Yahweh told him to sacrifice his son of promise, Abraham had the faith that Yahweh would provide a suitable sacrifice instead of Isaac. Abraham “... looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.” Hebrews 11:10 He held on to that faith as he waited for that City.

We read of Daniel, David, Moses, Elijah, Isaiah, and Nehemiah and of their faith. However, if, in our efforts to build our faith, we try to pattern our lives after these heroes and not the Lord Jesus Christ, we will fall short and be disappointed in our accomplishments. We must call on Jesus Christ, who is the author and finisher of our faith, to strengthen that faith. Daniel, David, Moses, and Abraham cannot do it for us, but they all followed the Rock in many ways and pointed the Way.

Those who seek to become overcomers will pray for stronger faith. When we pray for an increase in faith, we are praying for God Almighty to work out His purpose in our lives. We are praying that Jesus Christ will replace our will with His Will. We are praying for more discipline of character, more chastening with the rod of correction for a better society order, a better hope.

The discipline and chastening is the refining by fire that purges the chaff and prepares us for His service. With assured expectation, we look for the transformation of our flesh and the quickening of our minds so that we will be among those who will rule and reign with Christ, over the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:28

And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Discipline and Chastening: The Race for the Prize:

The Apostle Paul said, “I run, I press in for the mark of the prize of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus.” The Bible says, “Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness." That Kingdom of God is the City that Abraham looked for many centuries ago.

Jesus Christ is the only one who can strengthen our faith as we seek that City whose Builder and Maker is God. As He works within us, we will undergo spiritual refining discipline and chastisement. As overcomers in training to become Sons of God, (son placing or Biblical adoption) we are to submit to His rod with thankfulness and joy. We can see that attitude throughout the Acts of the Apostles. There was joy in their lives. Sure they suffered a lot, but they did not lose hope or faith, for they had a bonding spiritual commitment. The Sons of God, will be ruling and reigning with Christ. Enoch prophesied what this responsibility entailed:

Jude 14-15

¹⁴And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, ¹⁵To execute judgment upon all (lawless Israel), and to convince all that are ungodly among them (Israel) of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

Enoch prophesied that the Sons of God would be executing judgment with Christ. They are going to be part of a ministry of restoration upon this earth because “judgment” corrects. Judgment is a desirable action because it is God’s way of working within us to purge the chaff. It is usually painful, and consequently, there is suffering. But if we keep our eyes on the outcome and keep our faith strong, we can endure. Paul encourages Timothy even knowing that he was to be arrested.

Through it all, he kept the faith:

2 Timothy 4:6-7

6For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. 7I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

That should be the testimony of every Christian, my friends. Every Christian should be willing to offer this testimony. All of us within the Body of Christ should share in this uplifting of one another. I do not know how many times I have said it, but we tear each other down too much within the Body of Christ. If we want the Body of Christ to be stronger, then we should be lifting one another up. We should be helping build the faith of our brothers and sisters. We can personally help restore one another to strengthen the Body of Christ. Encouraging one another IN THE FAITH, to be Biblically sound in the faith, and to be doers of the Word.

8Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Paul is speaking to the Sons of God here who are a part of the Body of Christ. They are the ones who love His appearing. Paul looked for a crown of righteousness because he knew that he could not be righteous in this body of flesh. Righteousness of Christ was to be his crown. What a blessed crown that will be when we no longer are subject to sin.

The Apostle Paul understood the importance of infirmities, of the chastening of the Lord upon his life. It was Godly discipline that was being worked in him by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Again, Godly discipline is something that we as Christians need in our lives.

If Jesus Christ is going to execute judgment upon this earth, I do not understand how Christians can say that we are going to be whisked away from this earth. The passages I read say that He is coming to earth. There is going to be a new heaven and a new earth and the glory of the Lord is going to fill this earth. His Kingdom is coming.

Teaching men this reality is one of the duties of the Sons of God. To know that the Sons of God will be used by God to teach the Kingdom, which includes His plans and purposes, is far greater than to believe that we will die, go to heaven, and play our harps. Our chastening is a first step in our grooming to prepare us for His Plan for the Ages. I do not believe that He will stop with planet Earth in what He is doing. I believe, and this is pure speculation, that He has an even greater plan even for His universe than what we could possibly see or imagine right now. Let us not limit God by our human understanding.

The calling of the Sons of God – collectively called the “manchild” who is born of His spirit – is to rule and reign with Him. We will be caught up into the Holy of Holies as we are transformed by the Holy Spirit. Paul enumerates the fruits of the Spirit in his letter to those in Galatia.

Galatians 5:22-26

²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, ²³Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. ²⁴And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. ²⁵If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. ²⁶Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

To qualify as Sons of God, we need to manifest the fruits of the spirit. “Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.” Is that not the way of the world? We see a lot of envying – “I want to be like so-and-so.” We must begin looking at things differently through the eyes and heart of Holy Spirit.

The world wants us to look at things through our own eyes; through our own carnal reasoning. We will get deeper and deeper into strife and trouble when we continue to look through our carnal minds. They that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with its affections and lusts. How far along are we, folks? Have you crucified your flesh? We must crucify the flesh daily. A lot of what comes forth from our mouth from time to time in the smart little comments that we make, is regurgitated junk. We must crucify our flesh a lot more if we are to manifest the fruits of the spirit.

Again, the Holy Spirit is our Advocate to help us. I wish that I had heard a message about the Sons of God when I was younger. For you young people, this is a very important message because it is deep, spiritual meat, and I don’t care what the spiritual-Israel multiculturalists say. It is to and about God’s Israel people.

Obey Your Parents:

The principle, “children obey your parents,” applies to the “children of Israel” as well and how they should respond to their Heavenly Father.

Hebrews 12:3-9

*3For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. 4Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. 5And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: 6For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. 7If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? 8But if ye (Israel) be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9Furthermore we (Israel) have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

Yes, we are flesh, but we are also spirit. God, the Scriptures tell us, is spirit. Our spirit is to be in subjection to His spirit. We are to be led, which literally means to be disciplined, groomed, and prepared by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:14

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

If you are not led by the Spirit of God, you are not one of His sons. Those who reject His discipline and chastening, verse 9 of Hebrews 12, should heed this warning:

9...shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

My friends, this is the heart of the matter. We must put our flesh and our carnal minds in subjection to the Father of spirits. Jesus told us that He had waters that we had never had and bread that we had never tasted. “I am the way, I am the truth, and I am the life.” I am the resurrection. I am the way in which you are to be transformed into the Sons of God for the ministry of restoration. Chastening cleanses our spirit; it makes us humble, it opens our blind eyes to see the evil that surrounds us and the evil within us if we do not reject its work. It grooms and trains us for the race that Jesus Christ has set before us. Chastening is God’s way of cleansing us of unrighteousness.

Only those who have been elected, chastened by the Lord and prepared by the Holy Spirit will be sitting on His right and left hand. Those who have been spiritually proved and tested by the Lord. In closing this chapter, let us embrace the truth from Hebrews 12:11:

Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

Chastening yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness within our lives. Through chastening, we are being groomed for the Kingdom of God. Scripture tells us to “seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.” This is tough doctrine, but it is glorious.

Israeli Prime Minister Addresses Congress

By Pastor Barley

Netanyahu came into the Congressional house to speak to a joint session appearing as some rock-star or even the very President himself. To many brainwashed Judeo-Christians, he came bringing vital, unchallengeable facts and uncovered highly secretive evidence about some Iranian quest for nuclear power leading to nuclear weaponry. His speech was filled with insinuation after accusatory insinuation against the Iranian government. The Congress gathered was filled with hyper enthusiasm with every word of doom and gloom he uttered. This was Netanyahu's third presentation before them. No other foreign leader has been afforded this platform.

Of course he could not wait to play the anti-Semitic card, placing the "Jew" as the most victimized people on the planet. Introducing to rave applause, Elie Wiesel (alleged Nazi death camp survivor) and did as much holocaust pumping as he could. His speech was much like the vaccine scare tactics. Any outbreak of the measles, flu, or any other type of "bug" is hyped with "get your shot" immediately, when there is no such vaccine cure.

Netanyahu's message was purposed to get the USA deeper into the Middle-East staged war and conflict. He presented it as Iran vs ISIS, using the phrase "The enemy of your enemy is your enemy," to which Congress erupted with applause. Leaving the unquestioning with the idea that Iran is just a blood thirsty, war thirsty nation that is insane and must be kept from obtaining nuclear power at all cost. Never mind the fact that the Israelis are overstocked with nuclear weapons. Mordechai Vanunu, a former Israeli nuclear technician disclosed this information to his peril and even imprisonment that the Israelis do have a nuclear weapons facility (highly guarded and secretive in Dimona) that has produced at least 300 nuclear bombs capable of intercontinental and submarine launching missiles anywhere in the world. Hydrogen bombs are certainly in their armory, as they already have the codes which enable them.

Now do not get me wrong. Iran in my opinion does pose a number of problems (as the Bible says they are a wild people Genesis 16:11-12) and it could present a problem to the Israelis, and that's the emotional tear-jerker Netanyahu was spouting, Jewish annihilation. But he is not really fearful of this happening. He really wants his nation to be unchallengeable politically. This is why he came to Washington D.C. He came to stop Obama's Muslim minded administration from leading the way in the Iranian nuclear issue. The Obama administration, no matter what we may think of it, was not dancing to the brainwashing controlling ways of the Jewish puppet masters. One small positive for the Obama administration. The message is vote "Israeli policy" or face defeat. AIPAC and the American Jewish Congress (AJC) hold heavy political sway over what goes on in America even beyond politics and economics. Henry Ford wrote in his book The International Jew. "If there is one quality that attracts Jews, it is power." (#309 $15) Their Humpty Dumpty regime of Zionism over the "state" is cracking even while all seems status quo. This is the "church and state" they want, by the way, a Judaic Federal State.

But let's get back to the nuclear issue. There's a problem with their argument that Iran poses a threat. For one thing, their neighbors, such as India and Pakistan are hardly what I would call "sane or stable" especially the Pakistani Government which is highly Muslim. Think about it. Yet no holocaust has happened yet in the way of a nuclear nightmare from these countries, but somehow Iran is different. This is the scenario Netanyahu desperately wants Congress to believe.

As I said, his speech was peppered with accusation. He came as an "angel is light," but his motivation was far from saintly. He was clearly by-passing the President with his presentation because he wanted the attention of America, again, mainly because Iran seemed to be holding sway over the Obama administration. Are we really to believe that Iran is so stupid as to think they could somehow go play WWII? Many of you may think so, but the true evidence does not uphold this hypothesis, and the Middle-East is already "littered with nuclear weapons," held by Israel, Pakistan, and India. But Netanyahu wants Judaic Palestine to be the kingpin with political sway over America, period.

Letters from Readers:

Although I've supported another minister for some years and was getting his CDs, lately it's been necessary to redeploy support in the light of doctrinal differences that are getting bigger. As you've been communicating, you know what that dispute is: race. This goes back to the "revelation" of Steve Jones concerning "spiritual" Israel. My suspicions began at the Sweetwater Conference and the hawking of the Iraqi dinar. Truth to tell, in spite of misgivings, I purchased dinars. Not a great amount for me at the time, part of the reason of "investing" was to see what would happen with it. Then I attended the St. Louis Conference. It was there I observed "brother" Vinnie who was an obvious Saracen Italian. My doubts began to be reinforced. I later learned he was the prime mover on the dinar "investment." Red flags started popping up in my thoughts. As you may know, Vinnie lead a "spiritual revival" at the end of the conference. I stayed for it, and even moved to the front. And, yes, I "went down" when Vinnie "breathed" on me, much to my surprise. In spite of this, I said to myself, "Let's see where this goes." I would expect a genuine moving of the Holy Spirit would bring about a positive change in individuals and the Body of Christ. In short, there was no change that I saw, either then or after. The only change observed was the promotion of the "Spiritual Israel" teaching and the acceptance of "mixed" meetings and worship. Scriptural? Yes, if you accept the doctrine of Baalim. Correct me if I'm wrong, but whenever Israel turns back to God they separate from the "mixed multitude." So, am I racist? Yes, in the Scriptural sense. Well, 'nuff said. J, MI

A WORTHY OPINION EXPRESSED:

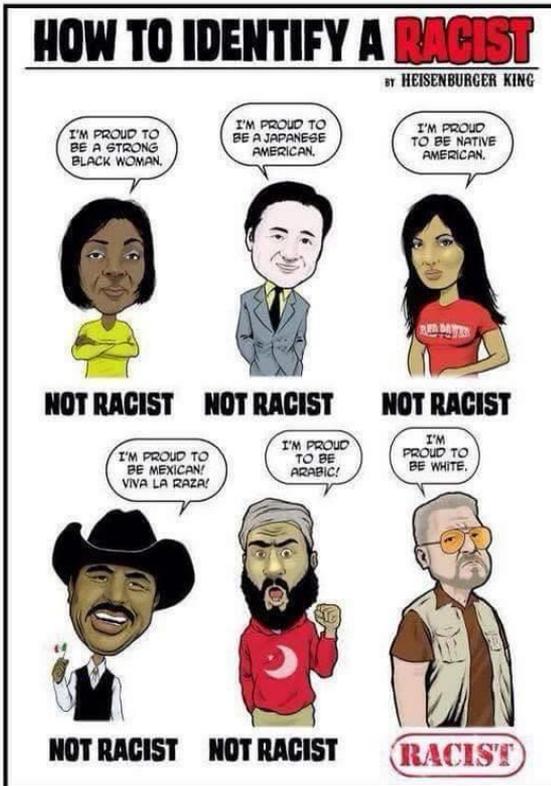

...The other event is the incident involving a fraternity at the University of Oklahoma. Perhaps by now you have heard of it – young white males singing a song, in which they used that forbidden word and singing that their frat would always be totally WHITE. Someone with them recorded them – put it on social media – and you would have thought the world was coming to an end!! The greatest SIN that could be committed – “RACISM” – had been voiced by WHITE males, and MUST be immediately stomped and destroyed before it corrupts anyone, and EVERYONE must disavow and condemn those involved! In chorus, as one, the president of OU, faculty, football coach, and too many more to count, joined hands with the politically-correct government and media, demanding the heads of the offenders! So many “AMEN'S” were shouted, I could hear it in South Texas! ...These ignorant pimps and servants of the very force that seeks to destroy our race were all over this, to quickly RUIN the lives of young men who did nothing more than sing and use terms FORBIDDEN by the CANCER that rules America...

The same cabal that conducted the “Russian” revolution in 1917 and then subjected that poor populace to decades of torture, murder, and intimidation are responsible for this travesty. They are doing HERE what they did THERE – establish a CLIMATE OF FEAR in this country, making people AFRAID to speak, for fear of “offending” those who call the shots in DC – much better known as Tel Aviv West. Today’s USA is close to being the USSR of the 1950s. And it is thanks to the SAME coterie of vampires who have managed to corrupt our country by getting passed “quota systems” and “hate crime” laws and through its media, pushing the concept of White GUILT upon our people. They have done that through academia, entertainment, the courts, and yes, the churches...

THEY – the ones who control our media, our courts, our academia, OUR government – are establishing a CLIMATE of FEAR in OUR country. The freedoms and liberty that were bought for a bloody price in 1776 are rapidly disappearing...RG

THE HAND OF GOD VERSUS THE "Red Hidden-Hand"

By Pastor Barley

The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. Proverbs 22:7

There isn't a law, policy, or treaty that does not have the financial backing of the money-changers (the hidden-hand). They have an evil authority and dominion. They do things according to their carnal, money manipulating concepts. They change "the rules" all the time to suit or apply their plans and New World Order applications. They want to keep the populous in captivity with all their various bureaucratic rules and regulations, like Obama care, which is why they have set up lawyers, politicians and vast bureaucratic procedures. Congress, the Senate, President, pharmacies, the educational system, United Nations, media, Hollywood and so forth get their orders from a group (the red hidden-hand) called the money-creators, or the International Jewish bankers. They are parasites who steal authority and dominion from Adamic Israel. God said in the Abrahamic Covenant, "in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed." The Jews have never been a blessing to all the families of the earth, but a curse.

The International Jews do not lend their fabricated false money just to be in the lending business. They understand the proverb above and use it to cause laws to be passed in their favor. You see, they have a globalist plan, and is policy oriented, and is regulated once it passes through the hands of congress. It is parted out and ready for congress when they come for their “money.” The money-changers have a plan already for them to implement, because all of man’s laws are pre-written.

But there’s another “Hidden-Hand” we have access to, the Hands of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is by the Right Hand of His Authority we are upheld, that is outside the physical processes of the systems of man. It is the very process that Moses used when fighting the Amalekites.

¹⁰So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. ¹²But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. ¹³And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. Exodus 17:10-14

This is spiritual warfare that was carried out while Moses was upon “a stone.” We also see Aaron the priest “stayed up his (Moses) hands...until the going down of the sun.” I believe the power of the Amalekite money-changer will be broken through this type of spiritual warfare that is not based upon our might or power, but by my spirit saith the Lord.

We need to also understand that when we operate according to the right principles of God's Word, we are operating by the Right Hand of God. The sons of God (those truly dedicated to Christ and His Word) who are scattered throughout the nations, are living examples of this because they are taking care of their family in a righteous manner. They are taking their duties as Christians seriously and with reverence in living according to God's laws. They are faithful to read and apply the wisdom of God's Word, they are good, caretakers of the body of Christ, and they employ good manners, character, and are honest in their life style and business practices. Thus, they are shining lights for Christ and His Kingdom. That City upon the hill that shines for Christ.

Why did FDR provoke Japan to Attack America?

<http://www.lewrockwell.com/2015/03/bionic-mosquito/the-pearl-harbor-myth/>
by Martha Barley

I have many favorite websites to read on a daily basis and one of them is lewrockwell.com. On March 8, 2014, he reprinted a review of the book, The Pearl Harbor Myth: Rethinking the Unthinkable by Victor George. Now I have not read that book, but one part of the review really caught my attention. The reviewer is Bionic Mosquito and I do not know who that is. It is the only name given. He said this:

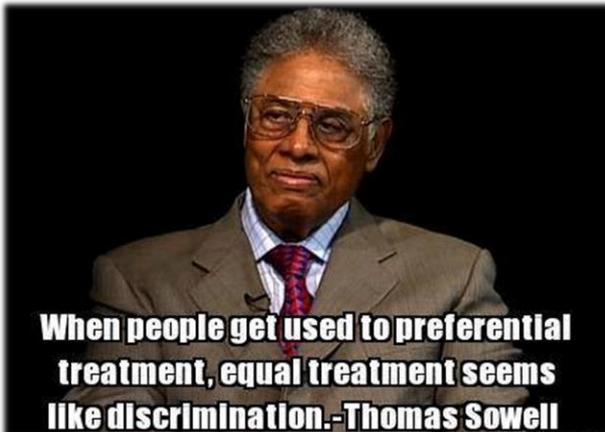

“Victor goes into some background of the U.S. involvement in the war well before December 7. He outlines the aid to the allies in Europe. He goes into detail regarding attempts to get Germany to shoot first. When this failed, the U.S. changed its focus to Japan. These actions have been well-documented elsewhere – termination of trade treaties, embargoes of material and the like. The big blow was the oil embargo.

His military advisors were strongly against the embargo, rightly anticipating that this would lead to war with Japan. Yet Roosevelt went ahead with the embargo in the summer of 1941 – abruptly reversing his prior position. At the same time, he took other measures within days of the embargo decision: freezing Japan’s U.S. assets, breaking off diplomatic talks with Japan, and arming the Philippines.

Something happened at this time to get Roosevelt to change so abruptly and go against his military advisors. Victor cites historian Waldo Heinrichs with a “unique idea.”

Roosevelt changed his attitude about pressuring Japan in order to save the Soviet Union. Germany had just invaded Russia, and Japan was contemplating when and how to support its German ally. Roosevelt was aware of these Japanese deliberations and preparations – Japan would make war plans for both the Soviet Union and the United States, but would only fight one of them. Victor believes it is quite credible that Roosevelt abruptly changed his approach and became more provocative with Japan for the purpose of reducing the risk that Japan attacks the Soviets.”

I don't know about you, but in all my study of WWII information, I had never heard that “unique idea” before. To me this idea makes total sense when you understand that FDR wanted the Soviet Union as our ally even though it was a communist nation. Sadly, the author of the book is a strong supporter of FDR in spite of this type of information.

One Man Holds a PATENT That Could Crush MONSANTO and Change the World

<http://www.loveclicks.org/food/paul-stamet-patent/>

In 2006, a patent was granted to a man named Paul Stamets. Even though Paul is the world's leading mycologist, his patent has received very little attention and exposure. Why? As stated by executives in the pesticide industry, this patent represents "the most disruptive technology we have ever witnessed." And when they say disruptive, they are referring to it being disruptive to their chemical industry.

We can no longer deny that the pesticide industry is causing incredibly detrimental effects to the earth, people, animals, plants & insects too. The rapid decline of the world's bee populations is being attributed to Monsanto's chemical concoctions that are being sprayed over farmers' fields around the world. (Though the number of countries who have kicked out & banned Monsanto is growing.) The use of chemical pesticides is a practice that absolutely must stop and new methods must be employed before it's too late.

Yet with Monsanto generating nearly $16 BILLION dollars in 2014, they certainly do not want anything getting in the way of that money flow. That kind of revenue gives them a lot of resources and abilities to suppress information that may be damaging to them.

Like this patent of Paul Stamet's. Paul has figured out how to use Mother Nature's own creations to keep insects from destroying crops. It is what's being called SMART pesticides. These biopesticides provide a safe & nearly permanent solution for controlling over 200,000 species of insects, and it is all thanks to the 'magic' of mushrooms.

I won't go into the specifics of how it all works, for most of us won't really understand it anyway, but to summarize, he does this by taking entomopathogenic Fungi (fungi that destroys insects) and morphs it into not producing spores. This in turn actually attracts the insects who then eat and turn into fungi from the inside out!

For those who do want to do their own further research on the topic, I have provided a list of links below to help you along.

As more people wake up to the damaging effects of Monsanto's chemicals & GMO foods, the demand for truly nutritious, pesticide free, non-gmo, organic foods is on the rise. We are seeing more community gardens & urban forests being created. More people are starting to grow food, not lawns. Permaculture is becoming more widely talked about and understood. There is a major paradigm shift happening right now as our collective consciousness expands and awakens.

These truly are exciting, monumental times we live in. We are seeing old world ways crumble and power structures fall as we wake up and step up to collectively create a more healthy and sustainable way of working, living & playing together on this planet. The time has come. We can do this!

The Incredible Disappearing Man

2015-03-16 21:49

Of course you all know of Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn. Who doesn't? Legendary Russian dissident during the Soviet era, prisoner in the gulags, starved, tortured, ostracised. But never broken. He spoke truth to power like few have ever done. His novels such as The Gulag Archipelago, The First Circle and Cancer Ward were not only brilliant literature but offered the rarest of insights into the life of a dissident in the USSR. He came to be regarded as one of the most eminent writers and philosophers of his age. Which contributed to his being awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1970 "for the ethical force with which he has pursued the indispensable traditions of Russian literature."

Feted wherever he went, his books became international best sellers, translated into dozens of languages, the world was at his feet. Then almost overnight it all stopped. He became a non-person. The transformation was virtually unprecedented in the field of literature. Why did this happen? Because Alex stepped on the Third Rail. Well he didn't so much step on it, rather dived on it full length. You see he wrote a book called 200 Years Together that traced the Jews' colourful relationship with the Russian people and especially their role in the Bolshevik Revolution and its murderous tyranny.

He didn't pull his punches. He placed Soviet Jews centre place in perpetrating the worst mass murders of the 20th century. While acknowledging that some Jews also suffered under this tyranny he clarified that it was not as Jews per se, rather that they were in the wrong faction at the wrong time. Solzhenitsyn's own estimate for the number of Christians (his word) who died was 60 million.

He documented all of this in meticulous detail.... names, dates, times. But he did something else, something more insidious and dangerous. Something that had strategic international consequences for the Tribe. For a start he shone a light on the extraordinary Jewish capacity to magic themselves into the position of victimhood irrespective of their actual accountability. This in turn depended on - as he pointedly noted - their uncanny ability to seize control of media outlets. "There are pages of this history which one does not open without trembling. And these are the pages that are systematically and purposefully eradicated from the consciousness of the Jews."

Other observations that cut to the bone included their practice of manipulating the legal framework to reflect Jewish interests. (Think "hate" legislation.) "Russian people are now confronted by a Jew both as their judge and hangman. Why was it that anyone who had the misfortune to fall into the hands of the Cheka could count with high probability on standing before a Jewish investigator or being shot by a Jew?" He meticulously debunked Jewish writers who sought to portray Soviet Jews as having no choice in what they did. 'Just following orders' How ironic is that? He carefully traces the ways in which Jews, both within the USSR and internationally, favoured and supported Jewish interests under the cloak of universalistic altruism. Sound familiar?

I haven't even begun to describe what he wrote in 200 Years Together not least because I haven't read it, only certain chapters. So why have I not read it? Aha, therein lies a tale! You see, Solzhenitsyn's legendary status and guarantee of vast sales would in normal circumstances have had international publishers slaving at the prospect of getting their hands on the rights. But none did. None wanted it. It was never published in the West. In fact, incredible as it seems it has never been formally translated into English! Given that English translations exist for almost every half-assed writing in the most obscure of languages the disappearance of 200 Years Together is mind-blowing. The author himself became a non-person as he had in the USSR.

Think about it. It is, as I said, mind-blowing. What sort of pressure could have resulted in every Western publishing house, every Western TV company, every Western magazine being being intimidated into passing up such a unique and hugely profitable publishing coup? How exactly was this Jewish power exercised? Was it overt, subtle, physical, financial....or what? It truly is frightening.

Is it any wonder that the American armed forces were afraid of commemorating the attack on the USS Liberty? Or that the country's so-called legislators should prostrate themselves before their true rulers in the sight of all? [200 Years Together is on amazon.com only in Russian for $84]

John 17:13-19

¹³And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. ¹⁶They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁷Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. ¹⁸As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. ¹⁹And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

KINGDOM RESTORATION, IT WILL HAPPEN

By Pastor Barley

In the book THE COVENANT, ONE NATION UNDER GOD, by Timothy Ballard, who says on page 122:

“These early Americans understood and worked to keep the American Covenant. They understood early on that if they were to receive liberty, protection, and prosperity, it would only be through obeying God and adhering to this national Covenant. For example in 1620, the Pilgrim pastor, John Robinson, after leading his people in fasting and prayer, sent them off to America with profound instructions for living the Covenant. He said, “We daily renew our repentance with our God, especially for our sins known, for sins being taken away by earnest repentance and pardon thereof from the Lord. Great shall be your security and peace.”

Upon landing in America in 1620, the treacherous journey at sea, the Bible carrying Pilgrims aboard the Mayflower according to their leader William Bradford, fell upon their knees and blessed the God of Heaven who had brought them over the vast and furious ocean. Upon their arrival, Bradford exhorted them, “Come, let us declare the Word of God IN ZION.”

Think about it, “COME LET US DECLARE THE WORD OF GOD IN ZION.” Don't you know they had to have had a Covenant Israel understanding? William Bradford brought them to America, the wilderness land of Zion, and they believed they were Israel and spoke as though they were Israelites. They knew that they had the marks of Israel upon them, for they had studied these things like Bereans of God's Word. They did not come over here like a bunch of John Hagee's saying, “We want to establish this land for the Jews, and we want this new land to be for the Covenant Jews." No, they came over to this new land with the understanding that they were the Covenant people. That this land represented the New JerUSAlem. Over and over in their writings and sermons, they declared this truth. And this is the faith upon which this nation was founded. America, though founded as a Christian nation by dedicated Bible believing people is far from Christian today. But let the little flock (dedicated remnant) that remains affirm the Covenant unto the Adamic Israel people upon which that Covenant clearly speaks. Let us start where we are today, which in many ways is again a "wilderness" with vast problems to overcome and deal with, and let us not be satisfied to just let the antichrists take this nation, but let us, like our Israelite forefathers long ago, take the kingdom from these Canaanites. Let us repent of our personal and national sins and commit our ways unto the Lord. The Kingdom is not lost, it is awaiting the sons of God to lead the way in Kingdom Restoration.
