HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

Welcome back from all the holiday distractions. Hope all of you had a safe and blessed holidays. Martha and I do not celebrate Christmas for reasons I will be sharing in this newsletter, but we had a very good family time at Thanksgiving. I believe we are now ready for 2014.

Opening Words

First, I want to say that Martha and I had a wonderful visit in San Antonio, Texas, in early December. I got to visit my brother and spoke at Pastor Kemble's conference while we were there. Overall, we had a great time. Thank you Pastor Kemble for inviting me to speak, and I must say, it was a blessing to hear the Israel Truth unapologetically taught. I have attended other conferences where the Anglo-Israel message is so watered down and spiritualized, you would have thought you were at some Judeo-Christian gathering.

I well remember the days when Pastor Sheldon Emry held camps and conferences where the Israel Truth was boldly and openly taught, and the fellowship refreshed and blessed all who attended. Oh, how I miss Pastors like Sheldon Emry, who along with many other great ministers and teachers of the Israel Truth have passed on (or who are no longer in the ministry), such as Robert Record, George Southwick, Robert Bell, John Lovell, C.O. Stadslev, Elder Devos, Robert Woodworth, John Hiker, Curtis Clair Ewing, Karl Schott, Delbert Clayton, Michael Vincent, Jack Mohr, E. Raymond Capt, and many others I have failed to mention. Thank God we still have a number of ministers and teachers of the Israel Truth carrying on this great work.

I also want to thank Jim and Vicki, our dear friends from San Antonio, who opened their home to us, so we would not be burdened with the added expense of a motel/hotel while in the area. Then when we were in Dallas for a quick visit, other dear friends, Jim and Becky put us up for the night, and blessed us with a day of great fellowship in sharing like-minded Biblical and political views that absolutely refreshed us.

Dr. Judith Benner also joined us, and God bless her, she is writing some fascinating material on the Celtic-German history involving the Hebrew language, plus some great research material on King Alfred and his “dooms” (which were actually the declaration of God’s laws). Bottom line, the fellowship was great. I should also add, that the weather in Dallas was quite cold, preventing us from being able to visit other dear friends, as the freeways were icy.

In addition, I must also mention the warm hospitality of Larry and Sandi Blanchard who now live in Fredericksburg, Texas. Larry has written some very interesting books concerning the Fall and Redemption of Adam’s Race that I will be studying over the next few months. Larry is a graduate of Denver Seminary (1979 M. Div.) In addition, he and his wife spent a total of six years in the Philippines as missionaries, and they DO NOT uplift or praise the Filipino people, NOT because they hate them, but because their history as a people and as a nation (for the most part) is far from any semblance of Christian Biblical order.

One thing I highly appreciate and respect, is the fact that Dr. Blanchard has a deep respect and love for the Abrahamic Covenant and the Covenant people.

Astute Letter from Reader

Dear America's Promise,

I have been reading, with great interest this past year, your calling into account of a certain Spiritual Israel teacher in our midst. Many of us are aware you are writing about Stephen Jones. I have been a reader of his material for years. Note, I did not say I am one of his followers.

I've written down some thoughts about something I've not seen in print, or heard anyone talk about, concerning Stephen Jones's puzzling, major switch in direction of his ministry around the years of 2003-4. This piece is both a letter to the editor, and, in small part, an open letter to Stephen Jones.

If you decide to publish my submission, I thank you in advance.

A. Robinson

Aaaaaah, Israel—about, for, and to whom the Bible was primarily written.

Pesky things, the nation of Israel and Israelites—at least to Stephen Jones. No matter what he does, and all the gyrations he goes through, he just can't get away from the concrete, and enduring, fact of Israel.

Jones obviously despises this literal, national Israel who God sovereignly chose to be His wife for all of eternity.

Why does Jones have such a hatred for a nation and a people? It seems inexplicable. However, his hatred for the nation and the genetic people of Israel comes through, loud and clear, in his material from the last decade, if one will take the time and effort to study it out.

Strangely enough, Jones hasn't always been "out to get" Israel, the Israel as identified in, and by, God's Word. Up until about 2003-4, he pretty much taught the Kingdom message. For example, in his The Laws of the Second Coming (2001), Chapter 11, Jones stays very close to accurate and truthful reporting, and interpretation, of scripture when he rightly identifies literal, physical Israel as the House of Israel. Jones even praises God for His plan for the forgiveness and restoration of physical Israelites, and the nation of Israel, to her proper place as God's bride and wife, as prophesized in His Word.

Thus, a quote from Jones on page 125 after his citing of Hosea 2:19-23:

"In other words, Hosea says that even though God had divorced the House of Israel and sent her out of His house into the land of Assyria, God would at some time in the future begin to court her again, betroth her, and remarry Israel. Hosea says that God did not cast out the House of Israel forever, but would restore her in the future." (Emphasis mine)

Jones goes on to say in the next paragraph,

"Israel died as a nation in order that she might be hidden in the field ("the world") until the time of the end. Only then would lost Israel be found, even as Joseph was found after being hidden in Egypt."

Therefore, Jones clearly teaches, in Chapter 11, that Israel as a nation—the lost House of Israel, the literal, physical nation of Israel—will be restored by God to her rightful status as His wife. (Remember, The Laws of the Second Coming was written in 2001.)

Jones then discusses Jesus' earthly mission on page 126. He quotes Jesus in Matthew 15:24, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel." Jones continues in telling us of Jesus in his own words:

"He sold all that he had—that is, He set aside His glory in heaven and came to earth as a humble man, and finally gave His very life to save His people from their sins."

Further down on page 126, Jones joyfully exclaims,

"God's plan was truly marvelous. He forordained that Israel would stumble in order that the world might be saved in their regathering.”

Here, Jones recognizes there has to be a gathering of the Israel people, first, before there can be a regathering of what? The same people, of course. (Emphasis mine)

Who is this Israel Jones is speaking of? He identifies the dispersed House of Israel, on pages 127-128, as the Celts, Saxons, and Welsh—the Caucasian peoples. We all know, of course, who these people are and how they became the founders of Western Civilization, and later, the people of Western Christian culture.

We see this man, Stephen Jones, fully trusting and praising his heavenly Father, rejoicing in his Father’s marvelous plan for the restoration of the literal, genetic House of Israel for the good of all mankind. One can almost picture Jones standing with the congregation, his hands raised, swaying from side to side, singing “Our God is an awesome God, He reigns from heaven and earth...” I find Jones’s delight in God, and His truth, wonderfully infectious as I read his Chapter 11, making me want to sing along with him.

Then, in 2005, comes along Jones’s book Who is an Israelite?* Anyone familiar with Jones’s prior writings would immediately have run up a red flag, or should have, at that title because who is an Israelite is not up for debate, Biblically speaking. Jones’s public vendetta against true Biblical Israel begins with this book, and he starts with Jacob in Chapter 1.

In order to kick-off his vendetta, Jones deliberately changes and distorts Biblical truth, takes scriptures out of context then orders them in a different way than written, redefines terms, and also develops character traits for Jacob, Isaac, and Esau, of which the Word does not speak. In the book, he even comes up with a different label for Israel—Natural Israel—which is nowhere in the Bible.

*[Note: I am not ignoring Jones’s Who is a Jew? Don’t get me started on that one! Jones really did a number on Romans 2:28-29 in that study.]

Coming up with his new label, Natural Israel, is part of Jones's vendetta against Biblical Israel. Do your own study of Chapter 1, where Jones's vendetta is launched, and compare it to what is written in your Bible. Just wait until you read the whole book. His hatefulness is shocking.

What's with this??

By the time the reader gets to Chapter 6, page 54 of Who is an Israelite?, Jones smugly concludes,

“Thus, Israel as a nation is composed of people of all races and nationalities who have transferred their citizenship to the Kingdom of God. To be specific, every Christian believer by definition is a “Jew” and every true “Jew” who continues on into full Sonship is an Israelite. Keep in mind that there are no more natural Israelites in the world. There are only ex-Israelites of the dispersion. Many people today have ancestors that used to be Israelites (emphasis Jones's), but that does not make them Israelites in the sight of God today. Their Israelite status ended with the great divorce.”

Jones continues,

“To become part of the Bride of Christ, one must become an Israelite citizen. God will only marry a nation composed of Israelite citizens. Yet citizenship is a legal issue, not a genealogical issue.” (Emphasis Jones's)

Whoa! Hold the phone! Slam on the brakes!

How does Jones go from delighting in God for His plan to restore the literal, genetic, national House of Israel as the Bride of Christ, to his creating his own Israel, composed of all races and nationalities—in just a few short years???

I have searched all over Jones's website looking for first, acknowledgment of, and second, an explanation to his readers of this major switch. Surely a change of this magnitude, this change of direction in midstream, deserves a prominent, lengthy and thorough explanation, wouldn't you think? If such an acknowledgement and explanation exists on his website, or in his books or tapes, I haven't found it.

What happened to Jones, between the years of 2001 and 2003-4, that would cause him to abandon his trust in God and His Word? What in the world happened which caused him to start re-writing God's precious Word into teachings which have no basis in scripture?

The reason is unknown, but this change created a hardened heart in Jones, resulting in a departure from his lifting up God as Ultimate Truth, to lifting up himself and his frequently conflicting new material, denying the trustworthiness and veracity of God and His Word.

Adding Jones's shocking, and sudden hatefulness, to his clear departure from God's truth, we witness a glaring contradiction of his mission statement, "Truth in Love", embedded in the blue, yellow, and red shield prominently displayed at the top of his homepage. Obviously, no "truth in love" here. It's been more like a prolonged temper tantrum lasting many years.

How about the phrase "“Serious Bible Study”" tucked close to the shield? How can Jones claim he does serious Bible study when he routinely ignores, takes out of context, re-arranges scriptures, and simply makes things up, to suit himself? One must question everything he has written, or spoken, in the last 10 years. Jones claims to be a Bible scholar, but evidence demonstrates he is no scholar, Biblical, or otherwise.

Even though he acknowledges, in The Law of the Second Coming, God would not cast out the House of Israel forever but would restore national, Celtic/Saxon/Welsh Israel as His wife, Jones, after 2003-4, banishes the true, literal, national House of Israel, to a hell of his own making—a place far, far away from God’s mercy, forgiveness, and restoration.

What’s with this???

Having created a hell for the to be restored national Israel, Jones then begins to fashion and construct a new and improved Israel—a replacement Israel—an Israel he designates as a “legal” Israel, which is not to be confused with the Biblical House of Israel. Anyone one can become part of this new “legal” Israel by going through several so-called legal steps, and poof!—they are now an Israelite. Jones continued to shape and perfect, through the years, his new replacement wife for God, and now has her new reality down pat.

Trouble is, God’s new wife, this “legal” Israel, and the implications thereof, has no basis in scripture. None. Jones made it all up. The literal Israel who went into exile must, according to God’s Word, be the same, literal Israel He remarries. Not to Jones. Not anymore. It is clear, after his heart change around 2003-4, instead of trusting in God and having Him define truth, Jones decided to create his own truth and market it as God’s truth. He continues, to this day, in doing something many of us find horrifying:

Jones began to correct his God.

As perverted as this whole “legal” Israel thing is, what concerns me the most, right now, is what happened to Stephen Jones in the first part of the new century. What happened to his contagious delight in God and His Truth? Where did it go? What caused Jones to begin to badmouth the national House of Israel, the apple of God’s eye, to begin a vendetta against the literal, national House of Israel, and genetic Israelites, which he continues to this day? What happened to Jones which was so destructive it caused him to turn bitter and hateful toward God and His Word, so much that he has thrown God’s Truth out of the window?

Enlighten us, Mr. Jones. Please. Perhaps we can help.

WARNING FROM PASTOR BARLEY

What you are about to read is not easy for me to say, but I am now convinced that I must confront a troubling situation. There is a problem, and it will not be corrected by sweeping it under the proverbial rug. May Christ be glorified, and may He correct and restore. That being said, I will proceed.

We also know another minister (Stephen Jones) who was speaking at a conference in Dallas the same weekend that Martha and I were in San Antonio, Texas, who does teach the unBiblical doctrine of Spiritual Israel. He was also in the Philippines with his parents as a child, doing missionary work. In fact, Jones was just in the Philippines following that recent destructive Typhoon with over 200 mph winds.

The two ministers (Blanchard & Jones) hold very different perspectives on the Filipino people. Jones now believes, from what people shared with me who attended the Dallas conference, the Philippines represents a New Covenant Kingdom rebirth, to which I say NONSENSE. Interestingly enough, while in Dallas, the people we were staying with asked us if we had been reading Jones's blogs. I said, "I try not to, but every now and then I do read some of his materials and that some of them do have value and merit. BUT, I added, most of his musings and predictions were nothing more than religious hype designed to attract Christians who like embellished, aggrandized, spiritual whoopla, thinking they are being fed "deep meat for the sons of God," when in fact, they are being fed spiritual twilight-zone deception.

Jones always leads his followers from one fabricated sensationalized spiritual insight to another with some list of “Bible numerics” to seal the deal and cause his followers’ eyes to glaze over with a sense of spiritual euphoria. In their mind, God must obviously speak to this man with special insights, and so, they must attach themselves to Jones and his gospel; a gospel, I might add, with “prophetic claims,” which cannot be sustained with or without him.

MONDAY MORNING QUARTERBACK CHRISTIANITY

Now, I am not against true Bible numerics or true Bible prophecy. Bible numeric has numerous applications. However, when charlatans (and there are many of them, just as there are many antichrists) make up spiritual enemies or plots that, for the most part, only they can see, and then only they have the ability to lay out certain scenarios and pray them away, leading their followers to deeper forms of blind allegiance. Then it’s time for some Biblical Watchmen on the Wall to come forth and expose this fallacious nonsense. Much of what he does is nothing more than Monday Morning Quarterback Prophecy which has been packaged to build greater devotion of his followers.

Beware of those who teach that their own lives somehow mirror world events. When we follow these people and their scenario of events which are not found in the Bible, it is unwise and God warns us against such foolishness.

When Jones talks about his prayer campaigns, it is clear he is talking about himself and taking credit for the outcome. For instance, he recently wrote about Obama threatening to invade Syria, and that a “state of war against Syria was imminent.” True enough, I think most people believed this was also a very possible outcome. Many people were praying that war might be averted, but, in typical form, Jones, as he has done in numerous occasions, claimed the following:

“I believe that our prayer campaign against broken treaties is the spiritual reason why this attack was cancelled. In other words, our entire country benefited from this prayer campaign and literally stopped a needless war. In fact, I believe it prevented WW3." Emphasis mine (Cover letter October 2013)

Excuse me, he and his prayer campaign prayed away World War 3? Who gets credit for this miraculous deliverance? Jesus Christ, or this Spiritual Israel Houdini and his prayer campaign? I can guarantee you that anyone could do this same process and claim victory, or whatever variety of outcome may emerge. For instance, let's use the present DUCK DYNASTY homosexual controversy. I see the problem and a group of us pray about this situation. Then depending on how it progresses, claim victory, or that we prevented some further disaster from developing, and the fish bite.

Oh Pastor, are you mocking the prayers of this man and his prayer campaign? You can't prove that he didn't pray away this and other threats to our nation, so, perhaps you had better just back off. Wrong, because Jones's so called prophecies, prophetic beast systems, and leviathans are 99% percent hot air. He puts forth these to entice his followers into thinking that he is the main answer to whatever forces (political military, storms or earthquakes, etc.,) may threaten America or other parts of the world. Oh, and please keep buying the dinar he and his friends are promoting for financial security (another prophetic scenario gone awry). Have any of you ever counted his numerous false predictions (prophetic claims) on this dinar? True, he has somewhat toned down his prophetic claims, but if you are closely following his writings, I don't think so.

NOTE: I am not saying that the dinar revaluation (RV) is false. I am saying, be careful with dinar prophetic claims.

Back in the 80's I remember Pastor Emry exposing Jones because of his involvement with a charlatan, who claimed he was worth billions of dollars, but he needed Christian Israel believers to come up with huge sums of money. By doing that, they would be greatly rewarded with financial and business bonuses. Jones spearheaded this operation (for this fraudulent Billionaire, Paul Bernay) with many secret meetings where only a chosen select portion of people were invited to participate. Bottom line, they were asked to put up large sums of money to be involved in this scheme, and those who did go along lost vast sums of money.

Pastor Emry was told of it after the fact and he warned people to have nothing to do with it. However, some damage had already been done. This situation became so troubling, with a variety of many disturbing aspects to it, that Pastor Emry held a Body of Christ Court, where witnesses came forth and testified of all the back-handed, secret, behind the scene deals. All of us who were gathered at this hearing were amazed and shocked to say the least. After this hearing, Stephen Jones lost his New Mexico ministry and had to go find a secular job in Arkansas, and did not emerge into his present ministry for several additional years.

I certainly believe in forgiveness and that people can be spiritually healed. But, I also know that we can become spiritually blinded, so much so, that we cannot see the "forest for the trees." I can no longer pretend that this man is teaching the Truth. Now certainly he knows much truth, and does still teach a variety of Biblical truths, and no doubt, he is brilliant, and, yes, he does have some interesting tantalizing prophetic insights. But to not also be highly concerned with the seriousness of his false Spiritual Israel teachings, his disqualifying leadership character, and his numerous false prophetic predictions makes us part of the problem.

Jeremiah 23:25-26

<sup>25</sup> I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

<sup>26</sup> How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

I know his devout followers will be outraged at what I am sharing, and to them, I will be the “bad guy” in this. So be it. I commit this matter to the Lord Jesus Christ.

The New Testament refers many times to ‘false teachers’ and ‘false prophets,’ and it was obviously a problem during Christ’s time as much as it is today. In Matthew 24:4, Jesus says “...take heed that no man deceive you.” 1 John 3:7 also talks about deceivers as those who “went out from us”, suggesting that these deceivers were once part of the Christian body of Christ. Also 2 Peter 2:1-3:

<sup>1</sup> But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

Jesus tells us to judge the fruit of all who come our way. Make sure that you are a good fruit inspector and always compare anyone’s words, including mine with God’s Word.

THE BIBLE VERSES ATHEISTIC RACIALISM

I try to find topics of Biblical impact to share with you. Topics that will stir you spiritually and that will awaken God's Covenant people to their true Biblical calling and purpose. This is not always easy, but there are blessed times that I feel the Holy Spirit flowing through me with a flood of truth that inspires me to new and greater levels in Christ.

Technology in and of itself is not our enemy, although it certainly can be used for bad or even evil purposes, just as it can be used for good and righteous purposes. Same goes for knowledge, or even the Word of God, this is why the Bible warns us to beware of false doctrine and wicked people. This is why we are to be fruit inspectors

If we do things Biblically well (meaning in a Christ pleasing way), then it will go well with our souls. At the same time, when God's people worship their fears, then they will never hear THE COMFORTER. For example, I was asked to look at a National Socialist internet site, concerning a possible item of interest. On this particular website, they made it clear that they were NOT CHRISTIAN, but, they sure did advocate White Power.

On their site, they were putting forth a questionnaire concerning homosexuals and whether or not they should be tolerated, or opposed? At which I had to ask, "BASED ON WHAT?" Are those White Powerites going to oppose homosexuals based upon nature, philosophy, the Constitution, some expressed laws of nationalism, or perhaps Odinism? I was saddened by their philosophy and humanistic belief system. The thought kept coming to me as I read through their website, "If NOT God's laws, then what?"—By what right or authority do you oppose something? Mere race alone holds no absolutes beyond mere “relativistic reason,” even though it may sound most compelling in its presentation. Race alone (without Christ) dies, and its “reason” dies with it, but in Christ, Truth is eternal and Divine Purpose holds and binds us together with our Eternal destiny.

God’s Covenant Law Word holds and binds race and reason with eternal destiny and purpose. Until the racialists, who worship their intellect, understand this Biblical Truth that is founded upon the Lord Jesus Christ the ROCK from whence we are hewn (Isaiah 51:1-2), they will be prey to the forces they oppose. Yeah, even allies with the very enemies (the Zionist) they claim to detest.

Racialist who are ANTI-CHRISTIAN, are ANTI-CHRIST as well. The Bible is very clear, “Who is a liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. Who denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.” (1 John 2:22-23).

How ironic that these particular category of White Powerites who are against Jesus Christ and the Christian faith, and who worship their own (creature) might, power, and intellect above that of the CREATOR, Jesus Christ, are actually antichrists themselves.

In light of the fact that they throw Jesus out, and embrace White Power in the name of intellectualism, they have no viable justification for their relative support, pro or con, for any law, order, or guideline, because they have nothing but mere human reasoning. They have nothing more than racial politics as a competing force against Darwinian “SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST,” but their argument makes the case for Darwin, in that their argument is based purely upon nature, and not nature’s God.

As a Christian, and upon the authority of His Word, I do not have to utilize some questionnaire to determine whether or not homosexuality is right or wrong. The WORD is very unambiguously clear that it is a sin. A sin so repugnant to God Almighty that He assigns the death penalty to such abomination.

Leviticus 20:13

<sup>13</sup>If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

The things of Kingdom truth, law, and government are essentially for God's Covenant Israel people to use, apply and to be a blessing, first to the calling of God upon them, and eventually to the world, in, through, and with these spiritual methods and tools of our Divine calling. When God's Jacob Israel people attach themselves to the world and worldly methods, they fall apart, and become as the world, much like what happened to Adam and Eve. In Christ, however, we are lifted out of this world and translated in His Kingdom, meaning, we no longer serve the power of darkness (worldly ignorance). We become a new creation to be filled with His Light and Truth, and through much tribulation along the way, we are called upon to overcome. We become more than conquerors through Jesus Christ. This is our high calling, and though many are called, few (a remnant) are chosen.

Colossians 1:13-15

<sup>13</sup>Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

<sup>14</sup>In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

I spoke of a “high calling” and that a remnant has been translated into Christ’s Kingdom, though we clearly have not graduated into the fullness of this blessed, holy calling. Another thing you should understand about this calling, is that it is unto the true lost sheep of the whole House of Israel, properly identified and found in the Anglo Saxon, Celtic, Scandinavian, Germanic, and kindred people. God’s called out and chosen Covenant People, though they have many faults and sinful shortcomings, are nonetheless the appointed CIVILIZERS to this world.

If it were possible to remove them from planet earth, civility and the high culture of civilized man would virtually disappear, for Adam-kind, with all their shortcomings and failures bear the marks of a higher order. The Kingdom of God, is of a greater, superior order, under the Headship of Jesus Christ, the King of Israel, who is unappreciated and despised by most people, but, a good change is coming!

Isaiah 62:2-3

<sup>2</sup>And the Gentiles [nations] shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

<sup>3</sup>Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

Pastor Barley

DUCK DYNASTY HONORABLE MENTION

“Our culture has accepted two huge lies. The first is that if you disagree with someone’s lifestyle, you must fear or hate them. The second is that to love someone means you agree with everything they believe or do. Both are nonsense. You don’t have to compromise convictions to be compassionate.”

God bless Phil Robertson, the Patriarch of Duck Dynasty! He spoke the truth of God’s Word concerning sodomite homosexuals and he did not back down. I don’t know about you, but I’m sick and tired of all the politically correct milk toast Christians who are oozing with New Age sensitivity, and so proud of themselves for being socially acceptable by modern day social mores (values). They are far more concerned about offending the feelings of some sodomite, when the sodomites are not the least bit careful about offending Christians, or attacking the Bible.

Here are some of the comments. He begins by comparing homosexuality to bestiality that has “outraged” the sodomite community. Well, I’m OUTRAGED by all their open perversions they display and verbalize every chance they get and they care not that we are offended, or that what they are doing is destroying our nation. Phil Robertson said, “But hey, sin: It’s not logical, my man. It’s just not logical.” When asked what he found sinful about homosexuality, Phil responded, “Start with homosexuality behavior and just morph out from there. Bestiality, sleeping around with this woman and that woman and that woman and those men.”

Phil Robertson went on to say, “Don’t be deceived, neither the adulterers, the idolaters, the male prostitutes, the homosexual offenders, the greedy, the drunkards, the slanderers, the swindlers – they won't inherit the Kingdom of God. Don't deceive yourself. It's NOT right."

The Duck Dynasty boys may not be your cup of tea, but if you're a true Bible believing, Bible values person, then you have to love, respect, and be honored by the stand this man (Phil Robertson) has taken.

CHRISTMAS TREE DELIGHT & A RED SANTA = CHRISTIAN PERVERSION AKIN
JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY

NOTE: Christmas will have passed by the time you get this, but please read and consider its admonition: God's true Hebrew, Anglo Israel people are called to be a crown of glory for the Lord Jesus Christ. A "royal diadem in the Hand of God." Isaiah 62:3 Ah, but there is a red dynasty who want to undermine the royal calling upon God's Covenant people, and these Cabala Talmudic RED Esau kind are ruling in this earthly realm according to the idols of their vain imagination. Red Christmas is just one of their many vain imaginations they use to misdirect and pervert the people of Christendom into celebrating their RED masquerade. Our Puritan Christian forefathers would have nothing to do with such deception, even though in their day, Christmas was well packaged throughout England with Christian accolades.

The point being, that we had better take a long hard look at the accepted and celebrated things of this world, and understand that most likely, they are not Christian. They are in reality spiritual wickedness of worldly approval. The masses even confer upon themselves a sense of holiness in their reveling and merriment as they gather around their superbly decorated tree.

Jeremiah 10:1-5

<sup>1</sup>Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

<sup>4</sup>They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

<sup>5</sup> They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

Now hear me out friends, I am a GIVER. I love to give. I do not need a “Christmas spirit or occasion” to give. I give, but I do not give under a “Christmas tree.” I give because I serve the greatest, most generous GIVER ever, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Giving is a blessed part of the Christian nature and character of the Jacob-Israel people. But we must beware, because giving can, and has become a spoiling, and even imposed selfish attribute conferred upon our children and young people. Our giving, and your giving as well, should be about the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness, and to our children within this Kingdom framework. Meaning, the Kingdom of God is real and tangible with Holy Spirit direction and purpose.

The Gospel message that must be preached, taught, and lived, is the GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM. The Apostles of Christ were Israelites racially. They were MEN OF ISRAEL, just as our Puritan Christian Israel forefathers who were Divinely led to this New land, America. The Puritans, like Jesus and His Apostles were steadfast Kingdom advocates and gave things pertaining to the Kingdom of God. They held no worldly wealth above pursuing the things of the Kingdom of God. Judeo-Christians speak of THE GOOD NEWS not understanding that the GOOD

NEWS OF THE GOSPEL IS THE RESTORATION OF THE KINGDOM OF COVENANT ISRAEL. True Israel shall be gathered unto the FATHER.

Though many, at this time of year have their heart in Christmas, Christmas was never Christian, but pagan. The Catholic Church, as they have done with many other holidays, took the pagan celebration and “Christianized” it without Biblical or Divine authority to do so. Something God Almighty never did, and never will approve of. Catholics and other Christmas advocates claim that the Catholic Church simply provided a “clean” alternative to the pagan celebration. Well, let’s hear what the Word of God has to say about this:

Isaiah 5:19-21

How Did Christmas Come to Be Celebrated on December 25?

- A. Roman pagans first introduced the holiday of Saturnalia, a week long period of lawlessness celebrated between December 17-25. During this period, Roman courts were closed, and Roman law dictated that no one could be punished for damaging property or injuring people during the weeklong celebration. The festival began when Roman authorities chose “an enemy of the Roman people” to represent the “Lord of Misrule.” Each Roman community selected a victim whom they forced to indulge in food and other physical pleasures throughout the week. At the festival's conclusion, December 25th, Roman authorities believed they were destroying the forces of darkness by brutally murdering this innocent man or woman.

- B. The ancient Greek writer poet and historian Lucian (in his dialogue entitled Saturnalia) describes the festival's observance in his time. In addition to human sacrifice, he mentions these customs: widespread intoxication; going from house to house while singing naked (can someone say caroling); rape and other sexual license; and consuming human-shaped biscuits (still produced in some English and most German bakeries during the Christmas season).
- C. In the 4th century CE, Christianity imported the Saturnalia festival hoping to take the pagan masses in with it. Christian leaders succeeded in converting to Christianity large numbers of pagans by promising them that they could continue to celebrate the Saturnalia as Christians.[\[2\]](#)
- D. The problem was that there was nothing intrinsically Christian about Saturnalia. To remedy this, these Christian leaders named Saturnalia's concluding day, December 25th, to be Jesus' birthday.
- E. Christians had little success, however, refining the practices of Saturnalia. As Stephen Nissenbaum, professor history at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, writes, "In return for ensuring massive observance of the anniversary of the Savior's birth by assigning it to this resonant date, the Church for its part tacitly agreed to allow the holiday to be celebrated more or less the way it had always been." The earliest Christmas holidays were celebrated by drinking, sexual indulgence, singing naked in the streets (a precursor of modern caroling), etc.
- F. The Reverend Increase Mather of Boston observed in 1687 that "the early Christians who first observed the Nativity on December 25 did not do so thinking that Christ was born in that Month, but because the Heathens' Saturnalia was at that time kept in Rome, and they were willing to have those Pagan Holidays metamorphosed into Christian ones.”[3] Because of its known pagan origin, Christmas was banned by the Puritans and its observance was illegal in Massachusetts between 1659 and 1681. However, Christmas was and still is celebrated by most Christians. QUESTION, should we convert to Judeo-Christian celebrations because they are in the majority? NO, I PREFER THE PURITAN REMNANT WAY.

Pastor Emry did a great study on this titled Is Christmas Christian? If you would like a copy, the suggested gift is $3 and ask for #103.

I have a great idea for all of you this Christmas. Put off the celebration of non-Christian Christmas, and try something of Kingdom importance and meaning. Pull out your DVD copy of the movie “MONUMENTAL,” If you don’t have a copy, write us and get one. ($15 suggested gift) Watch this movie. In fact, I would recommend watching it a couple of times over the “Holidays.” This is TRUE KINGDOM CHRISTIANITY at its finest. It is what is most vital, and is what Christians, especially in this paganized, Biblically incorrect world we are living in today need. It is what we must learn and keep learning. There is a world of difference between what our Puritan Christian forefathers set forth to do with Covenant understand for the Kingdom of God, and what is being reveled in this worldly celebration of Christmas.

Some of you will no doubt be angry with me over what I am sharing with you, but look about you and think Biblically. Does the Word of God really support Christmas, or is it pagan-based traditions? Our Puritan forefathers did not try and Christianize what was pagan that there might be merriment and joy to the world in mixing the pagan tree decorations and gift giving, caroling, reindeer, elves, “red Santa god” (who knows if you’ve been bad or good), the mistletoe ritual, and so forth. Mixing Christ with paganism does not Christianize or make something holy, though the Catholics love to do such things.

While most ministries will play the bells of merriment for you and speak in loving terms of Christ’s birth and hark the angels sing, and so forth, from their ministry of openness and tidings of gladness, does NOT make it Christian or Christ glorifying. The children especially love Christmas, and the reasons are obvious, they are given gifts, and are filled with feelings of wonderment and joy because Old Saint Nick is coming to their house to fill their red stockings and Christmas tree with presents. But the fact remains that such worldly celebrations including the Easter bunny and tooth fairy were avoided, and never celebrated in the Scriptures by Christians in either the Old or New Testaments, except by those who embraced the ways of heathen paganism (of course, with joy in their heart).

Nowhere in the Bible are we ever commanded to celebrate Jesus’ birth and if you want to celebrate, celebrate it in September when He really was born and give gifts to glorify Him and His Kingdom, not to yourself and each other! The wise men brought gifts to Jesus to acknowledge that He was the Messiah of the World.

True, Isaiah 9:6, states, “for unto us a child is born...” but He (Jesus) was not to be mocked or paganized with worldly Christmas celebrations embraced and reveled within by the vast majority of people who could care less about Christ’s birth or the Righteousness for which He stands. By the way, here’s a deeper magnification of Isaiah 9: 6, and this time we will include verse 7:

Isaiah 9:6-7

<sup>6</sup>For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

Please note that these verses are not about Christmas. They are about the Kingdom of God. Again, you will not be celebrating Christmas in Christ’s Kingdom. The Kingdom of God is where real joy, love, and peace emits from, not false pagan festivals.

Again, it is jolly old Santa, his reindeer, the grand decorated Christmas tree (so declared), red stockings filled with special goodies, houses decorated with lights of all variety flashing along with too numerous other assorted decorations including Rudolf the reindeer and mistletoes, the giving of gifts wrapped in holiday wrapping, paid holidays, family and friends (true enough), with Christ thrown in for good measure. No doubt, just where Jesus wants to be, and to be celebrated, right in the midst of paganism the Bible warns us to have nothing to do with.

I know, for the most part, I am wasting my words in this warning with die hard Christmas celebrators, because it is a family time most Americans look forward to, and it brings joy to their heart to have their friends and family together. They all love the giving of gifts, especially the children (I know I sure did among my Baptist family and friends many years ago), but I must again warn, this whole Christmas concept is supported and upheld by lies and fantasies of pagan origin. Mixing Christ into the event does not make it alright in God's eyes.

Yes, we are to be a people of JOY, but not a worldly joy. Instead, we are to have the JOY OF THE LORD. I never cease to love the Christian song, JOY TO THE WORLD, THE LORD IS COME, but sadly the Lord Jesus Christ is not the true reason for the season.

When it can be proved that the observance of Christmas, Whitsuntide, and other Popish festivals was ever instituted by a divine statute, we also will attend to them, but not till then. It is as much our duty to reject the traditions of men, as to observe the ordinances of the Lord. We ask concerning every rite and rubric, "Is this a law of the God of Jacob?" and if it be not clearly so, it is of no authority with us, who walk in Christian liberty. (from Charles Spurgeon's Treasury of David on Psalm 81:4.)

Oprah Says “That Obama’s Critics Are Racists And All Racists Must Die.”

(ED NOTE: the following was sent to me, and it has been verified)

Oprah recently gave a lengthy interview where she said a number of interesting things. Chief among them were these two amazing nuggets regarding race and Obama.

Nugget #1: In order to rid our society of racism, “all racists must die.” (Wow).

Nugget #2: All people who criticize Barack Obama are racists.

Now, if we are to take her at her word, and simply apply logic, you cannot fail to come to the conclusion that Oprah Winfrey would like very much to see all of us who dislike the Marxist regime of Barack Obama die a swift death.

Watch the short video excerpt below and see for yourself. She chooses her words very carefully, but in the end she cannot help herself and blurts it out.

http://feedproxy.google.com/~r/pakalert/~3/HZAtiwZHvpE/?utm\_source=feedburner&utm\_medium=email

Oprah is probably the richest woman on TV.

We are supposed to believe that the reason for this is that she is THAT talented. To say that she has been promoted to that position only because she is black (to prove that blacks can be even better than whites) is considered a racist remark. And doesn't Oprah represent all the feel-good principles of equality and personal growth and everyone getting along in peace and tranquility?

I was surprised when she came out so strongly for Trayvon, the thug, in face of the overwhelming evidence against him. She has, of course, been a big cheerleader for Obama from day one and attacks anyone who criticizes him as "racist."

Watching this interview she gives is pretty shocking because it reveals that not only is she the token "negro woman success story" but she is a major pied piper for the "white guilt syndrome" which we are seeing escalate to "kill whitey" slogans in Hollywood, the music industry and pop culture in general.

In the interview she promotes all the race lies put out there to instill fear and guilt in whites:

- * Blacks are discriminated against around the world, especially in Russia (attack on Putin)
- * "Unmasked" terrorism against blacks has gotten better due to laws enacted to protect them but the evil of (white) racism is still strong.
- * Racism is defined strictly as a problem where whites hate blacks simply due to the color of their black skin.
- * We still have a long way to go in overcoming white racism.
- * Apartheid South Africa was terrible but all is well there now that blacks are running the show.
- * There's still the old generation of white racists and "THEY JUST HAVE TO DIE!" (See: "kill whitey")
- * The "level of disrespect" toward Obama is only due to racism and has nothing to do with his lies, incompetence or destruction of America.
- * When a senator yelled out "you're a liar" to Obama, it was only out of racism and disrespect, but had no basis in reality. (Email from Pete) prove that the opposite of what Oprah Winfrey and other blacks allege is true. Just look at these statistics:

As documented on many YouTube videos and in the book, White Girls Bleed a Lot by Colin Flaherty, the crime statistics

After researching the FBI numbers for “Suicide of Superpower,” this writer concluded: “An analysis of ‘single offender victimization figures’ from the FBI for 2007 finds blacks committed 433,934 crimes against whites, eight times the 55,685 whites committed against blacks. Interracial rape is almost exclusively black on white — with 14,000 assaults on white women by African Americans in 2007. Not one case of a white sexual assault on a black female was found in the FBI study.”

Though blacks are outnumbered 5-to-1 in the population by whites, they commit eight times as many crimes against whites as the reverse. By those 2007 numbers, a black male was 40 times as likely to assault a white person as the reverse.

If interracial crime is the ugliest manifestation of racism, what does this tell us about where racism really resides — in America?*

Coming to a Police Dept. near You...

John Whitehead

Why does a police department which hasn't had an officer killed in the line of duty in over 125 years in a town of less than 20,000 people need tactical military vests like those used by soldiers in Afghanistan? For that matter, why does a police department in a city of 35,000 people need a military-grade helicopter? And what possible use could police at Ohio State University have for acquiring a heavily-armored vehicle intended to withstand IED blasts?

Why are police departments across the country acquiring heavy-duty military equipment and weaponry? For the same reason that perfectly good roads get repaved, perfectly good equipment gets retired and replaced, and perfectly good employees spend their days twiddling their thumbs—and all of it at taxpayer expense. It's called make-work programs, except in this case, instead of unnecessary busy work to keep people employed, communities across America are finding themselves “gifted” with drones, tanks, grenade launchers and other military equipment better suited to the battlefield. And as I document in my book, A Government of Wolves: The Emerging American Police State, it's all being done through federal programs that allow the military to “gift” battlefield-appropriate weapons, vehicles and equipment to domestic police departments across the country.

It's a Trojan Horse, of course, one that is sold to communities as a benefit, all the while the real purpose is to keep the defense industry churning out profits, bring police departments in line with the military, and establish a standing army. As journalists Andrew Becker and G. W. Schulz report in their insightful piece, “Local Cops Ready for War With Homeland Security-Funded Military Weapons,” federal grants provided by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) have “transformed local police departments into small, army-like forces, and put intimidating equipment into the hands of civilian officers. And that is raising questions about whether the strategy has gone too far, creating a culture and capability that jeopardizes public safety and civil rights while creating an expensive false sense of security.”

In addition to being an astounding waste of taxpayer money, this equipping of police with military-grade equipment and weapons also gives rise to a dangerous mindset in which police feel compelled to put their newly high-power toys and weapons to use. The results are deadly, as can be seen in the growing numbers of unarmed civilians shot by police during relatively routine encounters and in the use of SWAT teams to carry out relatively routine tasks. For example, a team of police in Austin, Texas broke into a home in order to search for a stolen koi fish. In Florida, over 50 barbershops were raided by police donning masks and guns in order to enforce barber licensing laws.

Of Dobson, Socialism, and Biblical Truth

By Bill Wilson, dailyjot.com

Bill Wilson is a Christian journalist, professional writer, and commentator on current events.

On one hand, I applaud James Dobson for suing the government over the mandate that Christian organizations must include abortion provisions in their socialized health insurance. On the other hand, I think he and other Christian leaders are missing the point. It seems that so many of those opposing this unconstitutional, unethical, un-American, ungodly socialist healthcare system are intent on swallowing the gnat when they should be killing the beast. We as Americans should not be opposing specific elements of this evil mess, but rather the entire law. There is no clearer case of where our First, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendment rights are violated, and our religious beliefs are infringed.

Socialism is against God. I know there are many Christians who believe otherwise. They are misled and ill-informed. They are mistaken. Socialism has its roots in communism. The Communist Manifesto requires that all religion and morals be abolished; that government replaces God. All wealth is redistributed so that everyone has the same. Government cannot be God--the First Commandment: Exodus 20:1, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

The socialist healthcare system requires wealth redistribution, establishes panels that decide who receives what type of care, mandates money for abortion, and is otherwise just against the core principles of God's provision and freedom because it is socialism.

As William Bradford described the Pilgrim's failed socialist experiment in "Of Plymouth Plantation": The experience that was had in this common course and condition, tried sundry years and amongst godly and sober men, may well evince the vanity of that conceit of Plato's and other ancients applauded by some of later times; that the taking away of property and bringing in community into a commonwealth would make them happy and flourishing, as if they were wiser than God. Bradford, familiar with Plato's "Republic" espousing a utopian society under socialism, expounded on the injustice of socialism/communism. In ending this experiment that nearly cost the colony their lives, Bradford wrote: "...God in his wisdom saw another course fitter for them."

In my opinion, and it is unmovable, socialist healthcare breaks the 10th Commandment: Exodus 20: 17, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's."

Jethro instructed Moses in Exodus 18:21, "Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness..." Wealth redistribution is participating in covetousness. It is against God's law. It would be better for our religious leaders to emphatically refuse to participate from the foundation of higher authority rather than debate our opposition based on the lower laws of humanity. We must simply refuse to participate based on our religious conviction and let the cards fall where they will.
